NEW!

Tiverton Recovery Library

and

Creative Drop-In

In partnership with

Flourish  cafe

The Recovery Library in Tiverton is a place to find a broad range of mental health and recovery resources, self-help books, mental health reference, recovery stories, and more.

The Recovery Drop-In in Tiverton is a place where you can meet other like-minded individuals to discuss our free, open access courses for mental health and well-being, browse our excellent Recovery library resources, relax at a table with some mindful colouring or other informal creative activities, share stories, exchange ideas, or just come for a cuppa and a chat.

Our Recovery Library in Tiverton is an extension of our Recovery Library based at St Sidwell's Community Centre in Exeter and books can be ordered by all library members using our online catalogue at www.devonrlc.co.uk

We welcome staff, support workers, people using the mental health services, carers, research students. Everyone is welcome.
